

Tuesday, February 4th
Class Type	Business	Hot Topics	Grazing/Sustainability
8:00 - 9:00AM	Lessons for US Producers in the Australian Beef Herd Rebuild	NADPRP Biosecurity	Grazing Cover Crops for Improved Profitability
10:00 - 11:00AM	Ag Land Conservation Easements - What you need to know as a producer/Leveraging Sustainability Programs for Ranch Resilience	Navigating the Evolving Landscape of Carbon Markets for Livestock Producers	Building Resilience in Your Beef Cattle Operation through Diversifying Grazing Enterprises
11:30 - 1:00PM	Cattlemen's College Luncheon

Wednesday, February 5th
Class Type	Business	Nutrition	Herd Health	Hot Topics	Genetics and Repro
10:00 - 11:00AM	Red Meat Yield	What REALLY Happens If...	From Pasture to Feedlot: The History, Current Knowledge and Risk Factors Associated with Acute Interstitial Pneumonia in Feedlot Cattle.	TBD	Meat quality in Brahman - Influenced Cattle
11:15 - 12:15PM	Intentional, Impactful Decision Making on Your Operation	Optimizing Herd Success: Nutrition Strategies and Best Practices in Heifer Development	BRD	TBD	Understanding Factors that Influence Fertility Potential of Bulls
3:00 - 4:00PM	Generational Transfer	Understanding The Nutritional Need of Your Herd Starts Here	TBD	Who's Gonna Fill Their Shoes	Avoiding a Wreck! Using Diagnostics to Improve Cattle Performance and Your Operation's Economics

Thursday, February 6th
	Demonstration Arena - Trade Show Floor
9:30AM - 10:30AM	The ABCs of EPDs (Expected Progeny Differences)
11:00AM - 12:00PM	Planning Today for Tomorrows Ranch Emergency (How to prepare ahead of time for an incident. Coordination with resources and what to expect if/when an incident occurs)
12:30PM - 2:00PM	BQA certification training
2:30PM - 4:00PM	Youth Stockmanship National Contest